

ANTITRUST DAMAGES LITIGATION: GLOBAL OPPORTUNITIES & RISKS

October 14, 2015

The New York Athletic Club
180 Central Park South
New York, NY 10019

Antitrust litigation is increasingly becoming a global issue that gets boardroom attention. Whether as plaintiffs or defendants, companies face risks and opportunities with respect to damages litigation in the U.S. and abroad. Quinn Emanuel and AlixPartners will review the latest global developments in antitrust damages litigation—including the recent developments in Europe that are aimed at facilitating antitrust claims, such as the introduction of a class action regime in the UK. The seminar will address the legal, strategic and practical considerations that in-house counsel at transatlantic and multinational companies need to know.

The speakers, with decades of relevant experience, will share with you their insights and experience in this important and evolving area of law that often directly affects companies' bottom lines.
