

Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan invites you to join a Webinar on

THE SEC'S ENFORCEMENT RESULTS FOR FISCAL 2018: GOING BEYOND THE NUMBERS

Quinn Emanuel partner Michael Liftik will provide an overview of recent SEC enforcement trends and provide his insights as to what the SEC is focusing on, and not focusing on, in its recent investigative activities.

Michael spent nearly a decade at the Securities and Exchange Commission where he developed a unique depth of knowledge working on enforcement and regulatory matters at all levels of the Commission. Accordingly, he is in a unique and special position to discuss the SEC's recent enforcement trends.

Michael Liftik is a partner in the Washington, D.C. Office. His current practice focuses on government and internal investigations, regulatory enforcement defense, securities litigation, cryptocurrencies, and cyber security. He has worked on a variety of securities matters stemming from major securities regulatory crises, including market timing and late trading, stock options backdating, and the financial crisis. He can be reached at michaelliftik@quinnemanuel.com.
